CHAMPAGNE

Pol Roger

Sir Winston Churchill's predilection for Pol Roger was sealed in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War, when he met and formed a lasting friendship with the captivating Odette Pol-Roger, who encapsulated Churchill's romantic vision of France.

For the remainder of his lifetime, Pol Roger was to remain Sir Winston's champagne of choice, supplied to wherever his engagements demanded from what he described as 'the world's most drinkable address', 44 Avenue de Champagne, Epernay. The friendship between the Churchill and Pol-Roger families endures to this day.

At the Churchill Hotel we have decided to stock Pol Roger's entire range of seven champagnes, partly because we feel it appropriate but also to give our customers a very rare opportunity to select from this prestigious houses' complete and delightful offering.
